This is NOT a professional commercial caravan associated with any existing caravan company. It is simply a group of square dancers with a common desire to have fun traveling together to Alaska. There will be no professional people on the caravan to guide, repair, educate, nurse or inform members on the caravan. We all will help each other out as a group of friends traveling together. Refunds on trip will be straight pro-rated. Legitimate reasons for refunds are death or serious illness of an immediate family member or a mechanical breakdown which cannot be repaired in time to join or proceed with the Post Caravan. Statements from physicians or repair bill required. Cancellation by suppliers of activities will be refunded on a cost basis. Post Caravan cannot be responsible for changes in activities due to sickness, weather, strikes, fires, or precipitous price increases that require cancellations. We are acting only as an agent for the suppliers who provide the activities. We accept no liability for damage or injury sustained on trip. Activities are to be utilized at the time they are scheduled and as scheduled. CB radios are strongly recommended. Pets are owners individual responsibility. Owners are responsible for their own equipment repairs and/or securing repair facility.
